

Commodities traded on the International Arbitration Court of the Czech Commodity Exchange

The following commodities are traded on the exchange:

- wood, ligno-cellulosic material, sawn timber, construction and packaging materials based on wood and wood waste;
- mineral materials, including modified ores, non-ores and fuels;
- fibre, paper and paper products;
- products of coke ovens and oil refining;
- chemical products and chemical fibres;
- construction and packaging materials based on rubber, plastics, glass, ceramic raw materials and concrete;
- essential metals and their alloys including metallurgical products;
- metal construction materials, products of wires, connecting materials, chains, fittings, bearings;
- wastes and secondary raw materials;
- semi-products and products offered and demanded by the Administration of State Material Reserves;
- semi-products and products made of the following raw materials: wood, ligno-cellulosic material, sawn timber, construction and packaging materials based on wood and wood waste; mineral materials, including modified ores, non-ores and fuels; fibre, paper and paper products; products of coke ovens and oil refining; chemical products and chemical fibres; construction and packaging materials based on rubber, plastics, glass, ceramic raw materials and concrete; essential metals and their alloys including metallurgical products; metal construction materials, products of wires, connecting materials, chains, fittings, bearings; wastes and secondary raw materials;
- electricity;
- plant and livestock products, and products generated by their processing, and also products used in connection with their production, relocation, processing or sale;
- greenhouse gas emission allowances;
- medical materials.